3.4.2 Policy on Awards and Recognitions for Extension Activities at Dr. Ambedkar College of Arts and Commerce, Yerawada, Pune

Introduction:

Dr. Ambedkar College of Arts and Commerce is dedicated to community service through its National Service Scheme (NSS) units. This policy outlines the approach and acknowledgement of awards and recognition from government or government-recognized bodies for extension activities.

Government Awards and Recognitions:

- The college acknowledges its steadfast commitment to community service through NSS units.
- Despite not receiving government awards during the specified timeframe, the college remains open to future recognition and is committed to continuous service.

Commendations from Non-Governmental Entities:

- The NSS units, comprising dedicated volunteers, operate with a spirit of continuous service.
- Non-government organizations, including Gram Panchayats, Municipal Corporations, Panchayat Samitis, Zilla Parishads, clubs, volunteer organizations, societies, educational institutions, doctor cells, political parties, and social cells, have lauded the college for outstanding contributions to societal issues.

Recognition from Diverse Entities:

- The NSS units have received numerous accolades from various entities throughout the assessment period.
- The diverse range of awards reflects the multifaceted impact of the NSS units, addressing a myriad of issues and making significant contributions at various levels.

Awards for Extraordinary Dedication:

- The college's NSS program officers and volunteers have been acknowledged for their extraordinary dedication and service to the community.
- Recognition from non-governmental organizations underscores the units' effectiveness in collaborating with diverse entities, creating a ripple effect of positive change.

Grassroots-Level Appreciation:

- Government recognition is an aspiration, but the college values and appreciates substantial recognition from grassroots organizations and community stakeholders.
- These acknowledgements highlight the impact of the college's extension activities on the lives of the people it serves.

Aspiration for Government Recognition:

- The college recognizes the importance of government awards as a testament to the institution's commitment to community service.
- Efforts will be directed towards fulfilling the criteria and standards set by government bodies to aspire for future government recognition.

Continuous Improvement and Documentation:

- The college is committed to continuous improvement in extension activities, aiming for higher service standards.
- Adequate documentation of all awards and recognitions will be maintained, providing a record of the college's impactful community contributions.
